Dear Samuel,

Re: Dispute Confirmation

We have received all your dispute details and are starting your investigation. We want to help you ensure your data is as accurate as possible.

Next Steps:

1. We will email you as soon as your results are ready. If you received a message on the website indicating that your dispute results won't be delivered online, then instead of an email confirmation we'll send your dispute results by postal mail.
2. Log in to view your results.

You can also use the above link to check the status of your dispute at any time. Remember: it can take up to 30 days to get your investigation results.

Sincerely,

TransUnion
